upon the happenings of the school year, we realize that many incidents, both good and ill, have made this year what it was. It is the purpose of the staff to present all of these incidents so that in future years you may turn through these pages and remember the part in the web of your personal life that was played by Durham High School in 1941.

Before the cloth is made, the yarn must be skeined—before a pupil can be considered an all-round student, he or she must participate in activities. In this section we present to you the story of the important part the extra-curricular program plays in making Durham High the main strand of the yarn of our life for three years.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL, with faculty advice, provides the student government of Durham High School. Its purpose is to train students in the correct method of government.

Each of the twenty-nine home rooms has a representative. The president of a home room automatically becomes the Council representative from his home room. These representatives assemble in a meeting on the first Wednesday of each month.

All officers for the Council are nominated and elected by the student body. The officers, who must be seniors of good scholarship and citizenship, serve both semesters of the school year. The president and vice-president are elected in the spring for the following year. The officers, secretary and treasurer, are elected in the fall for that year.

The Student Council sponsors lunch line supervision, and socials on Friday afternoons. Representatives from various home rooms serve at assigned posts of duty during lunch periods.

Those on duty are signified by Durham High School arm bands. All students may attend Friday socials and dance to the tunes of popular recordings, provided they pay a small admission fee to defray necessary expenses.

The 1940-1941 Council proposed an amendment to the school constitution. Heretofore there was no set date for the election of officers for the student body, senior, junior, sophomore classes, and the home rooms. The amendment set a specific date for the nomination, elimination, and election of the officers of each of these. The senior officers are nominated on the last Wednesday in September; eliminated on the next day, Thursday; and elected the following day, Friday. The junior and sophomore officers are elected in a similar fashion, the junior election being held one week later; the sophomore election, two weeks later.

This amendment was ratified by the student body and approved by Mr. Holton, principal.

Just Once a Year, But . . .

The MESSENGER is the culmination of a full year's labor. From a lazy day last summer, when the leading editors first met with the editor-in-chief to lay plans for this year's book, until a busy day late in May, when the printers finally finished the task of publication, the staff members and advisers worked steadily. Throughout the year, during the scheduled bi-weekly meetings and often in the afternoons, evenings, and on Saturdays, the business and literary staffs collaborated to produce the two hundred pages that you now hold in your hands.

As you turn through these pages, looking at the pictures and records of the members of the senior class, the photographs and write-ups of all activities, the pictures of the faculty and administration, the presentation of those students chosen as the twelve outstanding members of the senior class, the candid camera shots of D. H. S. in action, especially featured in the advertising section, you will find yourself inevitably wound into the web of our life in Durham High. And you will also observe that the MESSENGER, itself a thread of the "mingled yarn," is securely woven with its due share of "good and ill together."

The Hi-Rocket

The Hi-Rocket as the official news organ of the high school community has tried to present an unbiased picture of activities, both sides of controversial questions in editorials and letters, timely, interesting features, accurate forecasts of coming events while maintaining standards of policy and expression worthy of the school it represents.

The measure of its success is shown in its reception by the subscribers and its rating in competitive journalistic events.

This year, entered for the first time in the Southern Interscholastic Press Institute, the Hi-Rocket won first place at the meet which two delegates attended. For the sixth consecutive time medalist rating was awarded the paper by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association in the national contest at Columbia University, New York, and an All-Columbian award for excellence in headlines was received. A news feature on his impressions of the meeting written by Charles Markham, who represented the editor-in-chief, appeared in the Columbia Spectator and the School Press Review.

Harris Proctor, editor-in-chief, was student chairman of the North Carolina Press Institute. In the contest for the best editorial printed in any high school newspaper in the state, Harris received the first prize, a copy of "The Tar Heel Editor" by Josephus Daniels. Twenty-five delegates attended with Betty Poe, Mariella Hooker, Raney Stanford, and Charles Markham, official delegates, and W. H. Coble, C. S. Hooper, and Miss Marguerite M. Herr, who was chosen chairman of the newly organized state advisers' group.

A memorable occasion was the school visit of Joseph M. Murphy, founder and director of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, of which the Hi-Rocket is a charter member. Through the assembly address to upper classmen, personal interviews, informal talks to all city school advisers and officials, Mr. Murphy impressed those he met for the first time as a scholarly, inspiring leader in his field.

The Hi-Rocket submitted last June by J. W. Carr, III and Ned Newsom in the State newspaper contest was announced by E. R. Rankin, director, last fall as winner of the 1939-40 contest.

Of local interest was the program, "Journalism in the City Schools," one of a series of broadcasts

"To Durham Schools" sponsored by Supt. W. F. Warren, in which Raney Stanford represented the Hi-Rocket.

The Hi-Rocket is published biweekly under the guidance of Miss Marguerite M. Herr, general adviser; B. L. deBruyne, business adviser; W. H. Coble, assistant literary adviser, Mrs. J. B. Mason, art adviser; Miss Lucy Thomson, typing director; and R. L. Alfrey, cut adviser. The following students comprise the editorial board: Harris Proctor, editor-in-chief; Betty Poe, news-general; Mariella Hooker, managing literary editor; Raney Stanford, feature editor; Charles Norville, Lewis Gregory, and Marvin Francis, sports editors; Sarah Speed, editorial editor; Susan Buchanan and Carolyn Harward, alumni editors; Charles Markham, junior editor; and Ruth McDonald, Celia Thompson, and Dot Sugg, copy editors. Thomas Harris and Marion Gaddy direct the business staff; Ronald Rose supervises the circulation department; and Sylvia Hoover heads the art staff.

ART CLUB

Adviser: MRS. MARY L. MASON

THE PRIMARY FUNCTION of the Art Club since its beginning in 1932 has been to give the members an opportunity to express themselves in art.

It has also been invaluable to students who are interested in art and yet have been unable to include this subject in their daily schedules for credit toward graduation.

Three times out of the four monthly meetings held this year the club sketched or had a work period. Often a model posed, and some times members went outdoors to work. Once a month a program was arranged by Doris Bobbitt, vice-president, and either guest speakers were invited, or a trip to some exhibit was planned. Two of the most outstanding speakers were Mrs. Hornell Hart, who spoke on "Creating Beauty with Your Own Skill," and Mrs. D. L. Sherertz, a former missionary to China, whose topic was "Oriental Art."

Climaxing the activities of the year, a picnic on top of Piney Mountain was a thrill to all the members. Under the direction of Mrs. J. B. Mason, who helped the officers, the Art Club had one of its most successful years.

ELLEN H. RICHARDS CLUB

Adviser: MISS FRANCES WOOLWORTH

Look, TWICE, Boys! These girls of the Ellen H. Richards Club can surely qualify for making an attractive, convenient, comfortable home. Not only do they know all about planning, buying, cooking, and serving meals; but also they know how to improve one's personal appearance, how to entertain friends, and how to run a home on a budget plan.

The Ellen H. Richards Club is one of the nationally affiliated home economics clubs. During the year the club was honored by various noted speakers. The girls chose for their main projects the making of twenty-five pairs of flannel pajamas for the British War Relief, and the conducting of a city cooking school. Of course, these are only a few of the things accomplished during the year by these girls.

Members of the club consist of Durham High School girls who are taking, or have had, home economics. Each year Miss Frances Woolworth, adviser, awards a pin to that girl doing the most outstanding work.

These girls have made the Home Economics Cottage a show place that no visitor to Durham High School should miss seeing.

LE CERCLE FRANÇAIS, qui est composé d'étudiants de français qui ont reçu une note moyenne d'"A" pendant un semestre, est une des organisations les plus actives de l'école. Ce groupe, qui a en ce moment plus de cinquante membres, a pour son but de donner aux élèves une meilleure appréciation de la France—sa civilisation, ses gens, et sa langue.

Aux réunions qui ont lieu deux fois par mois, des programmes variés et intéressants sont présentés. Cette année on a eu le plaisir d'entendre parler deux invités de Duke University—Mme Marie Dow, une Française qui a passé toute sa jeunesse en France, et pouvait en raconter des anecdotes intéressantes et amusantes, et M. Edward Brown, qui a demeuré pendant plusieurs années en Suisse. Plusieurs petits discours ont été donnés, quelquefois en anglais, quelquefois en français, par les membres, qui ont discuté les aspects divers de la culture française.

On a aussi présenté de petites pièces en français, dont une, Au Coq de France, était très divertissante. La plupart des réunions sont terminées par des chansons françaises, dont quelques-unes des plus populaires sont "les Crocodiles," "le Coucou," et "la Marseillaise."

Chaque année le Cercle donne un pique-nique où les membres s'amuse à jouer et à manger "des chiens chauds."

QUERY: Resolved, That the United States should adopt a policy of requiring one year of military training of all able-bodied men before they reach the age of twenty-three.

The debaters began work in December by entering a practice debate tournament in Greensboro, where both teams and alternates participated. After this, more practice debates were held among themselves in preparation for the annual triangular debate. In this triangle Durham's affirmative and negative teams defeated those of Raleigh and Fayetteville, thus qualifying for the finals at Chapel Hill. In the finals the negative team won the highest award possible, the Aycock Cup; and the affirmative team won honorable mention. The Aycock Cup has been won three times before by Durham High School since 1912.

In April the debaters entered a tournament in informal debate, oratory, declamation, and impromptu speaking at Wake Forest College. Both the affirmative and negative teams advanced to the finals in debating and won honors in declaiming, oratory, and impromptu speaking.

Student Librarians Assist

Adviser: MISS FLORINE LEWTER

EXAMINING the pattern of the finished cloth, one can distinguish the minute thread of our school library. The strength of the thread and the impression made upon the observer depends upon the service which the library has contributed to student life, and upon the activities which have promoted that service.

The student library assistants, organized into a club known as "The Library Club," meet twice each month to discuss methods of library routine, and ways of improving library service, or they take part in literary and recreational programs. Each assistant plays her part in the making of the library pattern, devoting some period of school time to such duties as circulation, checking attendance, typing, preparing books for the shelves, shelving books and periodicals, assisting fellow-students in reference work and in book selection.

Into the hands of the library staff, composed of Miss Florine Lewter, the librarian, and seventeen student assistants, falls the pleasant task of directing research and general reading of the students, and of making available to teachers needed material for class work.

Looking for the technical side of things is the law of the members of the Phy-Chem Club. These students who take either physics or chemistry are always wanting to know "how" or "why." Through the medium of talks and experiments given by the students themselves, they present many interesting programs during the year.

"Music Hath Charms"

"FESSOR," as W. P. Twaddell is affectionately called by his students, has, in his past nineteen years as director of the Music Department in Durham High School, done much in making the community as well as the students more music conscious and appreciative. His choral groups have gained recognition throughout the nation as well as the state.

The groups have a large repertoire which includes numbers from the Latin "Miserere Mei" to "Oh, Susanna." Many students are regular members of the senior choirs of the city churches.

The chorus, which is composed of approximately 180 voices, received first rating in the sectional music contest for girls, boys, and mixed numbers. Ernie Walker, tenor, and Ed Langley, bass, received first places while Sarah Dameron, soprano, and Betsy Glymph, alto, received second. The girls' trio got "1" and the boys' quartet and mixed quartet rated "2."

Two concerts were given in Chapel Hill, one being the religious cantata "Ruth" by Alfred Gaul.

They also sang at several civic clubs and in the Greensboro Music Festival.

One of the highlights of the year was the presentation of Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta "Trial by Jury," with C. S. Hooper, Jr., playing the role of the "Judge." The supporting cast included: Sarah Dameron, Ernie Walker, Edward Langley, Reid Lloyd, Gene Casey, and other members of the mixed chorus.

The year closed with the chorus singing at the graduation exercises.

Aviation on Parade . . .

Adviser: H. K. COLLINS

ALTHOUGH the youngest club in Durham High, the Aviation Study Club is also one of the most active. Realizing the need for a club devoted exclusively to the study of aviation and aeronautics, Mr. H. K. Collins and seventeen energetic boys organized the first such club in Durham High. It was a great success, and this year with an increased membership and a more ambitious program, it again proved its worth.

The club has only one purpose: to promote interest in aviation. At each meeting new developments in aeronautics are discussed by the members—model building, although not a scheduled part of the club program, is carried on by a large number of the members. Some of their handiwork was presented to public view at the club exhibit of the annual science show.

Under the guidance of Edward Langley and Judson Burgess, presidents in the first and second semesters, respectively, the Photography Club had one of its most successful years. Adding many new camera fans to its roster this year, the first meetings were spent with the old members teaching the newer ones the fine points of the camera, making snapshots, and the processing of films and papers. The club went on photographic field trips, after the fundamentals had been learned, and held discussions about the resulting pictures taken on these outings.

During the second semester, however, the meetings were spent mostly in lectures by successful local photographers, both amateur and professional. Among these were Don Becker, press photographer for the Herald-Sun Papers, Superintendent W. F. Warren of the Durham City Schools, whose hobby is the making of colored slides, and Mrs. Paul Dillard Gamble, nationally famous amateur photographer.

E. C. Hester, the faculty adviser of the club, gave much assistance to the less experienced members of the club, instructing them in the use of the darkroom and in other phases of the photographic field.

One has to be more than just musically inclined to play in the orchestra. This activity requires natural talent plus acquired skill on the part of the student. Whenever the various school organizations present plays, the orchestra generally furnishes the music. Students from both Senior and Junior High Schools are enrolled in the orchestra group ably directed by Mr. Albin Pikutis.

The Durham High School band, under the direction of Mr. Thad Jones, has become a vital part of the school curriculum. With its sixty members, the band has become known throughout North Carolina. Upon receiving the request to play in Zebulon at the dedication of a new highway, the entire personnel, including drum majorettes, made a trip to that city for the dedication. They were next scheduled to visit Raleigh for a parade; and, while there, they were given the privilege of hearing the United States Marine Band.

This group also played in all the parades during the football season here. In the interest of fostering appreciation for band music, the band gave several concerts in the elementary schools of the city.

Hi-Y Club

Adviser: E. L. PHILLIPS

IN LIVING UP to their platform, "Clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, clean living," the members of the Durham Hi-Y Club have accomplished their purpose, "To create, maintain, and extend throughout school and community high standards of Christian character." The club, led by Paul L. Peterson of the Y. M. C. A., William Farthing, city representative, and E. L. Phillips from the Durham High School, has extended its influence during its twenty years of existence until it is an integral part of school and community life.

That these thirty-five boys, headed by President Ronald Rose, have fulfilled their motto, "Character Through Service," is shown by the many services they have rendered the school and the city. At Thanksgiving and Christmas they prepared toys and baskets of food for the poor. As their annual school project they sponsored Phil Messenkopf and his orchestra, and used the proceeds to buy flags for the school auditorium.

At the weekly meetings the entertainment committee sees to it that an interesting program is arranged, and occasionally a square dance, party, or weiner roast provides enjoyable variety.

The officers, elected by popular vote, are as follows:

President	RONALD ROSE
Vice-President	BOBBY KELLERNIAN
Secretary	BILLY DACKIS
Treasurer	BILL TAYLOR
Chaplain	ROBERT WHITE

THE MEMBERS of the Junior Needlework Guild, an auxiliary of the Durham Needlework Guild, gathered for the tenth anniversary of its founding in 1931, 1119 new, warm, useful garments which were given to underprivileged children of pre-school age. These garments were displayed at the ingathering in Durham High on November 1, and at the Washington Duke Hotel on November 5.

In October, the entire guild met in the auditorium to discuss the purpose and program of the Junior Guild, at which time the president, Susan Buchanan, presided. Mrs. H. C. Horack, president, and Mrs. J. A. Speed, of the Senior Guild spoke.

This year the forty directors were again guests at the annual tea at the Hope Valley Club. At this time, the directors presented a skit "In His Name," written by Mariella Hooker and directed by Dot Mills, that depicted the needs of the organizations which receive the contributions.

The Needlework Guild is composed of girls of the student body who voluntarily give their services to the welfare of the less fortunate children. To become a member of the guild, each girl is required to give two new garments for children under two years.

The directors chosen from among the junior and senior members are each responsible for ten other girls and a money member. Boys do their share by contributing to the shoe fund, which amounted to twenty dollars this year.

ALTHOUGH more emphasis is put on acting than any other phase of dramatics, advertising, directing, and backstage work receive their due amount of importance. Those interested in these phases of dramatics had the opportunity of showing their ability in "Mary Finds a Mother" and in the State contest play, "The Miracle of Tony Assisi," which was given second rating by the Carolina Dramatics Association.

The programs of the club are of varied nature, from study of drama to vaudeville entertainment.

We salute Miss Brown Phillips! Only a few of us know how hard she has worked to make a success of plays, programs, and other activities of the club.

Mummers

THE CULMINATION of the year's activities of the Mummers Dramatics Club was the presentation of "A Wedding," a one-act comedy, chosen, cast, and directed entirely by students. Under the direction of Wade Williams, this play is the first, so far as is known, to be solely a student production presented in the auditorium. Six hundred students laughed at the humor of its sparkling lines.

The Mummers' good turn for the year was the presentation of a fifteen-minute play over radio station WDNC, which opened the sale of Christmas seals. Again the guiding hand of Wade Williams served as director, who also played a role, as did Nelda Ferguson, Newton Angier, George McLeod, Thomas McCauley, and Gordon Whitted.

On a headline quiz program, sponsored by the Herald-Sun, Thomas McCauley gave evidence of his ability in topping his colleagues to capture the five-dollar prize. Others appearing in this program were George McLeod, Marguerite Clark, Martha Ann Sally, and Catherine Long.

In this connection, we pay tribute to Dot Murray's splendid work casting "Thank You, Doctor." Unfortunately it was necessary to cancel this presentation on account of insurmountable obstacles. Four times it was postponed.

Under the excellent planning of Newton Angier, the programs have been very interesting. Make-up demonstrations, recording of voices, and presentation of one-act plays have been on the schedule.

We welcome the sophomores, our new members, and are pleased to note that they comprise a very valuable part of our club.

The cast of the wedding: Newton Angier, the groom; Janet Topham, the bride; George McLeod, best man; Thomas McCauley, the groomsman; Julia Dunn, the mother of the groom; Marguerite Clark, aunt of the bride; and John McAllister, father of the bride.

THE Cornelia Spencer Literary Society was named for Cornelia Phillips Spencer, who was noted for her splendid essays and religious letters.

The first year after it was organized, the Cornelia Spencer Society often held joint meetings with the Walter Hines Page Society, but both organizations soon became too large.

It is the aim of this society to teach its members how to deliver clear, interesting, and intelligent talks before an audience. In this they are ably assisted both by practice at the meetings, and by their adviser, Miss Lelia Hampton, who gives them much valuable advice.

The two outstanding speakers of the year were Mrs. O. F. Herring, who gave an interesting talk about her experiences in Africa and afterwards gave some bird calls, and Jane Wilson, a former graduate of Durham High, who gave an interesting talk on her work in a children's library.

The Walter Hines Page Literary Society program makers emphasized polish and ease in public speaking and expert guidance in types of life work.

Fundamentals in Public Speaking outlined by Professor Leroy Lewis of Duke University; "Preparation for a Law Career" discussed by Professor Malcolm McDermott; and "Surgery as a Life Work," by Dr. W. B. McCutcheon were valuable contributions supplementary to student effort.

The members of the Page this year have won distinction in public speaking; Charles Markham, Charles Daniels, and Ronald Rose in the state contests and Harris Proctor in the state and national.

Each year in the fall the freshmen are initiated at Camp Sacarusa, and a banquet is planned and given by the boys in the spring as a climax to the year's work, at which time a prominent speaker is introduced. This year Dr. R. S. Rankin will speak on the "World Crisis." The name of the boy who has brought the most outstanding service to the school and the society in three years is engraved on the Page cup every year.

The secret of the Page Society's success has been the following of their motto, "Let knowledge grow; let life be enriched," and the untiring help of their loved adviser, Miss Marguerite M. Herr.

Say, did you see Eleanor Rankin wearing that handle-bar mustache! Well what about Kathleen Duncan making a "sour-puss king" of herself.

So was the discussion of one of the plays put on by the Brogden Society at one of their semi-monthly meetings. It was one of the most entertaining and novel programs presented by the members of the Society this year.

The Society which was organized in October 1926, was named for Mrs. Lila Markham Brogden who was a former Latin teacher at Durham High and a leader in the city's civic life.

Under the advisership of Miss Louise Watkins, the society has and still is making vast strides toward a larger and better organization. It carries the flag on with its motto "The Truth Shall Make You Free."

Adviser: E. L. PHILLIPS

LED by Gordon Carver, president, and Mr. E. L. Phillips, adviser, the Blackwell Literary Society started its twenty-fifth year by impressing its motto "Faciendo Facere Dis-crimes," "Learn to do by doing," upon nineteen new members at the annual initiation held at Camp Sacarusa. Following the ceremony all enjoyed dinner, although the mantelpiece served as a table for the new members.

Many varied programs were held during the year; including a "Take It or Leave It" quiz with Ronald Rose taking the prize. Mr. Phillips was a strong competitor until he tripped up on who the first bachelor president of the United States was. Later in the year the club collaborated with the Page Literary Society in a joint "jam" session, with Billy Marshburn and his band furnishing the "jam." A cabin party brought the season to an eventful close.

Nature Study

Adviser: MISS DOROTHY WILSON

DID you ever wonder why the "bearded lady" at the circus had a beard or why some people were midgets? Have you ever been asked the question why a black cow could eat green grass and give white milk? It's a strange world we live in.

Trying to solve some of the seemingly impossible occurrences of nature, members of the Nature Study Club presented lantern slides, held many discussions, and took field trips. Speaking of field trips, the group had to take one to have this MESSENGER picture made. On that particular day Mother Nature seemed to be in an unkind mood—there was too much poison ivy around! Why can't Nature lovers recognize poison ivy anyway?

Commercial Club

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB, the largest organization at Durham High School, is one of the most important, from the standpoint of the actual service that it does for the individual—emphasizing especially public speaking, leadership, and social affairs.

As is customary each year, the Commercial Club had charge of one assembly program. This year, on December 3, Dr. Paul L. Garber, pastor of Trinity Avenue Presbyterian Church, was guest speaker for that program.

Each year the Commercial Club and the Coöp Class combine their efforts in the production of a three-act play, the proceeds of which go to the betterment of the school. This year under the directorship of Bailey Hobgood, these players presented "What a Life" on December 6.

The May meeting was replaced by a social in honor of the club seniors and the members of the cabinet.

A new interest of the Commercial Club is the inauguration of the publication of the Comm-Comm, a bulletin edited by the students of the club. It contains news of unusual interest to the club and is published on certain special occasions.

THE FIRST GROUP of athletically inclined young men to participate in the Durham High School athletic program for 1940-1941 was the football team. During the latter part of August these boys began to prepare for the real season which lay ahead.

This year, as in the past several years, the team was coached by Carey L. Brewbaker and two capable assistants, P. G. Sykes and Nick Warren.

They opened the season with an impressive 33-0 victory over Mt. Airy, which was considered to be a strong team. The next week the Bulldogs journeyed to Portsmouth, Ohio. There, against a team which was supposed to be superior to them, Portsmouth was handed a 21-0 setback by the boys from the Bull City. The following week the gridmen met a highly toned squad from the seaport town of Wilmington. The sailors were on the short end of a 28-0 score. Following this engagement the Bulldogs met the High Point squad in the Furniture City. When the dust cleared away, Durham walked off with a 13-0 victory. Then in the next contest, which was with Greensboro, the Bulldogs were held to a scoreless tie. Following the game with Greensboro the Bulldogs were again tied by a strong team from Wilson. The game ended in a 14-14 deadlock.

The Bulldogs next entertained Rocky Mount on the Durham field and lost to the Blackbirds by a score of 14-7. Closing the season with one of the oldest rivals in the "Old North State," Durham High School played hosts to Raleigh. The score was 13-0 in favor of Durham High.

STARTING the season with sixty-nine consecutive victories and a high standard to live up to, the Durham High Bulldogs had a very successful regular season, topped off by winning the State Championship from High Point, the only high school five to defeat the Bulldogs during the entire season.

Continuing the good work first started two years ago, the boys received invitations to the Duke-Durham Tournament and the Glens Falls Tournament at Glens Falls, New York, but were eliminated in the early rounds of both of the tournaments, which were captured last year by Durham High.

Leading the quintet were two boys from the famed 1940 team, Gordon Carver and Bill Gattis, who were aided by such capable players as Douglas Ausborn, Sammy Gantt, Turner Bright, Thomas Jones, Shuler Loftis, A. C. Sorrell, Kenneth Turner, Charles Ferrell, Edgar Lougee, Herbert Swindell, Al Wilson, Harvey Renn, and Raymond Barnes.

FOR SEVERAL YEARS Nick Warren has assisted the coaches of baseball and football in D. H. S. for one reward only: the sheer joy in working with the boys and the satisfaction he derives from helping to train fellows to play clean, tough games—the kind that make good men better men. His example as a former athletic star in high school and at Duke, and now as a citizen whose love of sports brings him from his office every afternoon to work on the athletic field is an inspiration to all lovers of real sportsmanship.

Baseball

Coach: J. D. SHIELDS

Completing one of the most successful seasons in the history of Durham High School, the baseball team under the capable leadership of Coaches J. D. Shields and Nick Warren clinched the Eastern Class A championship with a sensational record of seven wins and one loss.

A large number of boys turned out for this year's team. Several lettermen from last year returned and played on this year's nine.

The pitching staff, one of the most important factors in the game, seemed to be pretty well in hand. The moundsmen were paced by Fred Morgan, who always turned in a startling performance. George Whitted and Claude Weldon, two rising pitchers, also saw active duty this year and will be the team's main dependence next year.

Members of this year's squad are as follows: F. Morgan, C. Weldon, G. Whitted, Captain R. Perry, D. Branch, I. Saunders, B. Gattis, S. Loftis, P. Jones, G. Carver, A. Adams, H. Mims, D. Saunders, B. Dunnegan, C. Ferrell, B. Council, C. Braswell, B. Lougee, Mgr., and B. Garrett, bat boy.

Swimming

Coach: W. H. COBLE

Concluding one of the most successful seasons in Durham High School swimming, the Bulldog mermen, headed by co-Captains Woodson Venable and Louis Featherston, rung up a pair of victories over both Raleigh and Goldsboro, two of the most powerful high school teams in the state. The Bulldog swimmers also placed second in the State Meet at Duke University.

Under the able guidance of Coach W. H. Coble, the swimmers won five and lost four of their nine dual meets; however, these losses all came at the hands of college freshman teams.

Dick Christian served as manager, arranging the schedule and conducting the meets with Coach Coble.

The 1941 schedule with the scores is as follows:

Durham	46 - 20	Oak Ridge
Durham	32 - 34	U. N. C. Frosh
Durham	28 - 38	State Frosh
Durham	31 - 35	U. N. C. Frosh

Coach: B. G. STEWART

Though not winning the State Championship this year, and with the prospects for the season just fair, the Durham High wrestlers had a very successful season under the capable leadership of Coach B. G. Stewart.

Headed by such capable lettermen as John Poe, "Biggie" Johnston, and George Kerr, Coach Stewart's boys won five out of six games this year, dropping only one match, to Barium Springs, whom they had defeated once during the season.

Elbert Wethington and Walter "Biggie" Johnston had the honor of being the only Durham wrestlers to win the state championship in their divisions. The complete list of the grunTERS for Durham are: Bill Jacobs, Walter Johnston, Roger Wilbur, Chester Poe, Don Ross, Elbert Wethington, Hamill Boyd, Bobby Lee, John Poe, John N. Lasater, George Kerr, Jack Woodall, James Holloway, David Hessee, and John Lasater.

Golf

E. C. Hester, M. McCullen, D. Adderton, R. Greene, R. Davenport, R. Adderton, H. B. Weaver, M. C. O'Connor, J. Kerr.

Coach: E. C. HESTER

Although the team lost three out of five matches, the Durham High golfers did very well considering the lack of material caused by scholastic trouble and mid-year graduation.

This year's team was headed by Donald Adderton who, though aided by capable players, was the outstanding player during the entire season. The highlight of the season was the recent  $14\frac{1}{2}$  to  $3\frac{1}{2}$  impressive victory over Fayetteville who had previously won the State Championship in a tournament held at Chapel Hill.

A particularly interesting observation of this year's team is that one member is a girl. Mary Clay O'Connor has the distinction of being the first D. H. S. girl to join the golfers. This may possibly be a suggestion to more girls interested in this popular sport, for golf in Durham High School need not be regarded exclusively a man's game.

Tennis

Coach: W. G. WHICHARD

With but three members of the 1940 tennis team reporting for the 1941 team, Coach W. G. Whichard was faced with the large task of building up almost an entirely new tennis team.

Starting the season with six inexperienced players, the Durham High team dropped a decision to Danville in its first game, 7 to 2. With the team gradually beginning to become stronger, the Bulldogs dropped a close one to Winston-Salem. Following this match, Coach Whichard's boys began to hit their stride and defeated Chapel Hill to the tune of 9 to 0.

Showing better form with every match, the Bulldogs defeated Raleigh 8 to 1.

Since the annual goes to press before the close of the tennis season, it is impossible to give an account of the last games. The Durham tennis players are expected to show even better form than they have shown previously.

Track

Coach: J. L. WOODWARD

Led by Co-Captains Norman Herndon and "Buddy" Grinstead, the track team showed signs of promising material. As the season developed, it turned out that, although shy of stars, the team had much talent.

In several of this season's meets the cinder-men were really hitting their stride. At the beginning of the season Coach J. L. Woodward was not very optimistic over the candidates for this year's aggregation; but when a large number of boys turned out for the different events, thus giving a broader field from which to choose men for each event, the track team was better off than had been previously expected.

Norman Herndon was the high scoring individual for this year's team. Herndon excelled in the 100 yd. dash, broad jump, high jump, 220 yd. run and shot put.

Girls' Athletic Association

Adviser:
MISS NELL LEITNER

"All work and no play makes Jill a dull girl" well might be the slogan for the Girls' Athletic Association, which is composed of all those girls having earned at least seventy-five points according to the state-adopted point system. Better known as the G. A. A., the local group is a part of the state Girls' Physical Education Association, and through keeping the health rules, attending practices, and participating in the various tournaments its members learn to know the true meaning of sportsmanship and comradeship.

NELL WALTERS, Vice-President; MARIELLA HOOKER, President; MARTHA GLYPH, Secretary; BILLIE WHITE, Point-Secretary; REBECCA WHITLEY, Treasurer.

Paddle Tennis, Softball, and Tennis

There's more to physical education than getting one's hair wet or skinning a knee. It promotes self-reliance, sportsmanship, and a clearer understanding of one's fellow classmates. Based on these characteristics, the G. A. A. is a friendly organization of girls who have a mutual love of sports.

First row: Miss Leitner, E. L. Holloman, M. R. Suitt, N. Walters, A. Percy. C. Andrews, C. Puckett, B. Glymph, D. Frederick, D. Land. Second row: L. King, P. Register, B. J. Price, E. Boyd.

Deck Tennis and Badminton

Advised by Miss Nell S. Leitner, and led by the managers of the various sports, Durham High girls have a well-rounded intramural program climaxed by hard-fought tournaments. Twice this year the G. A. A. has been in charge of the regular assembly program; the highlight of the current year came, though, in the form of a banquet the night of May 7 here in the school cafeteria.

First row: O. Sherertz, D. E. Garner, Miss Leitner, C. Puckett, N. P. Webb, M. Hundley, B. White. Second row: R. Beasley, J. Noell, S. Steele, E. Boyd, B. Bright, P. Kelly, E. Hessee, M. Hooker.

Standing: A. Fields, M. James, M. Glymph, C. Puckett, D. Land, L. King, J. Bowling, J. Berry, M. Suitt, D. Frederick.
Seated: M. Holloman.

Basketball and Swimming

Miss Leitner, M. Johnston, S. Munford, C. Puckett, G. Saunders, B. White, M. Hooker (Manager), A. Percy, D. Frederick, E. Holloman, E. Hessee.

Ranking highest in popularity with girls athletics was the basketball season which lasted from mid-winter until early spring. Afternoon practice, class instruction, and spirited intramural tournaments kept things moving from beginning until end.

Pictured below are the mermaids who were in the Life-Saving class. Swimming is taught throughout the year and is enjoyed by those who like swimming and don't mind getting their hair wet.

First row: M. Latta, V. Powell, F. Carr, J. Topham. Second row: M. Van Trine, B. Sceley, C. Alexander, E. Ormond, L. Harris, B. Stone, M. Dezern, S. Rummelt, D. Land.

Classified . . .

After being skeined, yarn is classified according to the quality and to the amount of work necessary to obtain that quality. Likewise, students are classified as seniors, juniors, or sophomores according to the number of credits they have earned and the amount of work they have expended to obtain these credits. As with yarn, the students with the highest rankings come first.

Highest Awards in State Contests

WHEN RUTH McDONALD walked off with first prize in the State Latin Contest, the Latin Department reaffirmed the fact that although it may deal with a "dead" language, it in itself is rather alive.

The Fine Arts Department also won state contests; in fact, three of them: Mack Cameron, pencil drawings; Edward Langley, bass voices; and Ernie Walker, tenor.

Just to keep in step with the others, the Physics Department took top honors with a paper submitted by Ronald Rose. To show his versatility, Ronald also won the State declamation and impromptu speaking contests of the North Carolina High School Speech Tournament; and then, Ronald won the State Mathematics Contest.

Demonstrating that our public speakers are active in all fields, the negative debating team—Charles Markham and Walter Cannon—defeated sixty-three schools in the finals of the High School Debating Union to win the Aycock Memorial Cup for Durham High School.

But we can go even higher than state winners. Meet Harris Proctor, who won a $750 scholarship, a gold watch, and a sight-seeing trip to Washington by placing second in the national oratorical contest sponsored by the American Legion. After winning in local, district, sectional, state, and regional competition and triumphing in the national semifinals, he established himself as the best high-school orator east of the Rockies in the finals held at Charleston. Harris also proved his skill in journalism by winning the State contest in editorial writing.

Diversified Occupations Class

THE Diversified Occupations Class of 1941 is the largest since the class was organized in 1938. It has a total enrollment of thirty-two members. Twenty different occupations are represented. Members have received a total of more than 19,870 hours training in practical work. The average member, in addition to learning the fundamentals of his chosen occupation on a real job, has earned $231.84 during the school year. Total earnings of the class for the year are $5,564.16. The class has been particularly interested in informing the public of vocational needs of Durham. The members are especially indebted to the civic clubs, the Chamber of Commerce, the Vocational Advisory Committee, and the daily newspapers, all of which have given their assistance in this matter.

Some highlights in the calendar of the year's activities:

The publication of Vocational News, a bulletin of interesting facts of vocational interest.

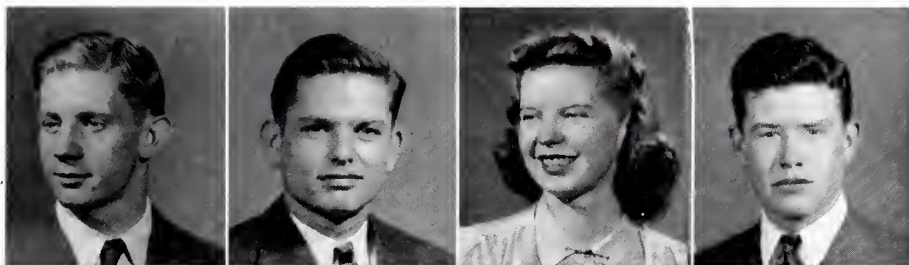

The state meeting of D. O. classes, held at Wilmington.

Participation in defense projects.

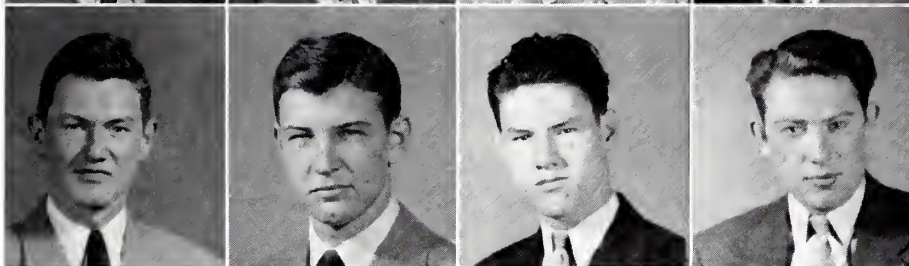

The annual class banquet.

Two out-door parties.

Coroso Players

SEVENTEEN YEARS ago, the Coroso Players made their first appearance in Durham High School. At that time the Parent-Teachers Association was striving to meet the offer of the Shriners to give the school $1,000 provided that they could raise $1,000, the $2,000 to be used for playground equipment.

The Commercial Club and the Coöperative Class, eager to help, combined forces and gave a play under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers Association. After weeks of practice, the play was given and it was so well received that it was presented at Chapel Hill and Lakewood School.

The players, hoping to make the play an annual affair, decided that they should have a name for it. They finally chose "Coroso," the "Co" standing for the Commercial Club; the "ro" for Miss Rogers, director of the Coöperative Class; and the "so" for Miss Solloway, head of the Commercial Department.

The Coroso Players have given many useful gifts to the school. Their aim is to help the school whenever and wherever it needs help most.

This year the players presented "What a Life," a comedy in three acts, by Clifford Goldsmith. The play was under the direction of Bailey W. Hobgood. "What a Life" was a dramatization of many humorous incidents in the life of Henry Aldrich, the famous radio star.

Seated: P. Schroder, S. Levitt, J. High, F. Whitaker, L. Driver, W. Laws, R. Stone. Standing: S. Rummelt, M. Johnston, H. Council, M. Johnson, R. Newton, C. B. Jackson, J. Butler, R. Eubanks.

CAST OF "SMILIN' THROUGH"

DISPLAYING quaint Irish sentiment, Allan Langdon Martin's outstanding stage attraction, "Smilin' Through," was presented to two very enthusiastic audiences on May 9.

The play had a wistful sweetness seldom equaled on the stage. Moving along swiftly, it carried a rare vein of human interest from episode to episode until the happy ending.

Kathleen Dungannon (Peggy Schroder), in love with Kenneth Wayne (Ralph Strayhorn), was forbidden to marry him by her stubborn uncle, John Carteret (Bill Merritt), who had taken an oath that no one of his line should ever wed a Wayne. Pressed for an explanation, he told the story of what had happened fifty years before. The audience was taken back to the period in which Carteret and Jeremiah Wayne (Elbert Wethington) were both in love with Moonyeen Clare (Nelda Ferguson). She chose Carteret; and Wayne, wildly jealous and quite drunk, forced his way into the house on the wedding night and, shooting at Carteret, accidentally killed Moonyeen. In bitterness Carteret firmly opposed Kathleen's marriage until the voices of Moonyeen Clare and Kenneth's mother (Jean Chandler) sent from the other world a spiritual message softening his unrelenting heart. Then his spirit joined that of his bride, and with his death the lovers were left free to marry.

John Poe as Willie Ainley; George Kerr as Dr. Owen Harding; Philomena Colella as Mary Clare; and Mildred Schulken as Ellen; and Jack Dunham, Kathleen Duncan, and Dillard Mitchell completed the well-chosen cast, so successfully directed by Mr. J. R. Weldon.

May Festival

Dot Green, Betsy Buchanan, Peggy Schroder, Eula Craven, Emil Cekada, Rose McDermott, Edith Cooke, John Simpson, Renny Holinshead, Carl Lloyd Cooper, Shirley Harton, Herschel Caldwell, Philip Eadie, Rosa Mae Dean, Benny Roberts, Jean Boring, Jean Gerard, Gail Farthing, Barbara Stone, Anne Parrish, Beverly Mann, Sybil Cashwell, Dot Mills, Patricia Kelly, Margaret Huckabee, Fern Rice, Tonya Gamble.

THE THEME of the annual May Festival, "Patriotism," was a very timely and appropriate one. The dances were chosen as typical of the American people, and ranged from the Indian dances and the colonial minuets to modern "jitterbug" numbers. In keeping with the theme, all costumes and streamers were in patriotic colors. Following the procession and the crowning of the Queen, the pupils from the nine city schools presented their respective dances. At the conclusion of the program a huge United States flag was formed by pupils from all the schools and remained formed until the May poles had been wound. After the completion of the winding of the May poles the audience rose and joined in the singing of the Durham City Schools' theme song, "God Bless America."

Rosa Mae Dean, the beautiful May Queen chosen by the student body, reigned in queenly dignity and was attended by her maid of honor, Jean Boring, and a court of attendants chosen from among the four classes. The attendants were: Edith Cooke, Dorothy Mills, Anne Parrish, Peggy Schroder, Eula Craven, Shirley Harton, Patricia Kelly, Barbara Stone, Betsy Buchanan, Sybil Cashwell, Margaret Huckabee, and Rose McDermott.

The flower boys and girls were: Gail Farthing, Tonya Gamble, Jean Gerard, Beverly Mann, Philip Eadie, Penny Hollinshead, Angus McBryde, and John Noell Simpson. The heralds: Dorothy Green and Fern Rice; the crown bearer: Benny Roberts; the train bearers: Herschel Caldwell and Emil Cekada; and the jesters: Mary Ann Jones and Anne Stapleford.

Who would guess that the commodious chair, pictured above, in the making, was once an humble barrel containing soap chips? The Home Ec girls procured two barrels from Watts Hospital and the woodshop boys cut the rough outlines of the chairs from the barrels and fashioned the seats from interlaced inner tubes. The girls are covering the barrels with cotton, excelsior, and cotton print.

“... Way Back In 1941”

As you page back through this Annual ten or twenty years from now, it will be difficult to realize that in so short a time you have progressed from a high-school graduate to a Durham leader. Yet that is the hope in you held by us older citizens. With that hope goes our confidence that you, like your parents and grandparents, will be ever active in building a finer Durham.

Varied Machines in School Shop

Imagine a mechanical invention that will measure the breadth of a human hair! The industrial department here purchased an instrument called a meciometer which can measure materials whose thickness is only one thousandth of an inch.

The metal shop has recently purchased some additional power tools, among them the machine pictured at the right. This is a milling machine, which is used to finish rough surfaces, to cut gears, metal shapes of many sides, keyways, turving surfaces, and boring holes.

A device known as an index center is used with this machine to cut teeth on gears. These gears are placed on their shafts by another new machine known as an arbor press, which, though small, exerts a pressure of three tons when pulled by the hand alone! Other new equipment includes an arc welding outfit, acetylene brazing apparatus, a power saw, and some hand tools. —Courtesy of the Hi-Rocket.

Attend D. H. S. Athletic Association Banquet

Here are some of the principals who attended Durham High School's Athletic Association banquet in the gymnasium of the school May 19. Four of the five "Big Five" football coaches are standing. They are Raymond Wolf, North Carolina; Wallace Wade, Duke University; Doc Newton, N. C. State; and Peahead Walker, Wake Forest. Seated, left to right, are: Dr. E. R. Rankin, secretary of the State High School Athletic Association; Dr. Frank S. Hickman of Duke, the principal speaker; Paul Sykes, city school's athletic director who served as toastmaster; Quinton Holton, school principal; and Basil Watkins, former coach and now a member of the City Education Board.

Editors of Prize Winning "Messenger"

Reading from left to right are Dillard Teer, co-business manager, Ann Barry, editor-in-chief, and Dorothy Brogden, co-business manager, the leaders of the 1940 MESSENGER, which won first place in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association contest. The yearbook was given excellent rating in engraving, printing, and typography, and was especially commended on its cover.
